

DESIGN YOUR VERY OWN CITY!

Koalas in Capes is set in Pawtonia – where animals wear clothes and have jobs (and some even have superpowers!). If you were to make up your own city, what would it be called? What's special about it? Have a think and jot down some ideas on the lines below!

Now it's time to have a go at drawing out a map with fun, imaginative names for each location. Here's the map of Pawtonia from the book for inspiration!
